

The 3 rules of recycling

Simple things to remember when recycling at home or the office.

Place only clean bottles, cans, paper and cardboard in the bin. Any contamination may result in the items not being recycled

No food or liquid in your recycling. Even the smallest amount could be seen as a contamination.

There should be no plastic bags used to collect recycling. And plastic bags should never be recycled curbside.